

To be used with the May 11, 2020, issue

Reading Comprehension
Common Core RI.4.10

Name: _____

Tic-Tac-Toe

Read “Scholastic Summer Read-a-Palooza.” Then choose an activity below, complete it on a separate sheet of paper, and mark the box with an X. Choose another activity and mark it with an O. Switch back and forth between X and O until you have tic-tac-toe.

Which author would you like to invite over to your home? Explain why.

Write a three sentence summary of the article.

Choose a section of the article to turn into a scene from a graphic novel.

Summarize Kwame Mbalia’s inspiration for his latest book.

Make a list of five questions you’d like to ask Ann M. Martin.

What is Jarrett J. Krosoczka’s writing process? How does it compare to your own writing process?

What book series would you like to see turned into a TV show? What would you include in the first episode?

Some folktales feature an animal as the main character. Write a story that features an animal. Describe how it overcomes a problem or learns a lesson.

Name a book that you plan to read this summer. Explain your choice.